

About Andrei Tudor

Forever in love with music, Andrei Tudor continues, with passion and joy, the tradition of a family of musicians for over 75 years. Andrei began studying and playing the piano in 1987, at the age of four, and since then he has been doing what he loves every day.

On the rise, Andrei promotes crossover music, from jazz, to classical, to pop and symphonic rock. With respect for the tradition of the family of composers to which he belongs, he promotes, in a contemporary language, the music of today and tomorrow.

Throughout his career, Andrei has had the pleasure of collaborating with important artists such as Angela Gheorghiu, Andrea Bocelli, Ed Sheeran, Mario Frangoulis, Dulce Pontes, CeCe Winnans, Pia Toscano, Mateo Bocelli, Edwin Marton, Goran Bregovici, Walter Ricci, Ally Brooke, María José, Jennifer Crestol, Brad Vee Johnson, B & B Gospel Choir, Boney M Experience, Beverly Glenn Sundel, Zucchero, Eros Ramazotti, Laura Pausini, Giorgia, Lauren Allred, Jon Batiste, Aura Urziceanu, Monica Anghel, Nico, Luminita Anghel, Andra, Gabriel Cotabita Vlad Mirita, Marcel Pavel, Caesar Quatu, Cristi Minculescu, Irina Baianț, Adrian Enache, Paula Seling, Aurelian Temișan, Carmen Trandafir, Pinky, Berti Barbera, Cristina Haios, George Miron & Acapella, Smiley, Irina Sarbu, Bucharest Symphony Orchestra, Bucharest Pops Orchestra, Romanian National Orchestra, Big Band Radio Romania, "George Enescu" Philharmonic, Bucharest Symphonic Orchestra, Symphonic Pop Orchestra, Camerata Regala, Andrei Tudor Orchestra, Opera Comica pentru Children, Romanian National Opera Cluj, Sibiu State Philharmonic, Brasov Opera Orchestra, Pitesti Philharmonic, Oradea Philharmonic, Dinu Lipatti Philharmonic (Satu Mare), Transilvania Philharmonic (Cluj), Arad Philharmonic, Budapest Primarius Orchestra, Prague Philharmonia, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Saarbrücken Radio Symphony Orchestra.
